Beers of the Knolls Thank You

It was a great turnout this year for the Beers of the Knolls and a good time was had by all. Thanks go out to John Iavarone, Tom Dunn and Jimmy Joyce for doing a marvelous job of hosting. The food was delicious and the beer was cold—who could ask for anything more? Looking forward to next year!

A Sad Note:

The Loss of a CK Resident

Joan E. Fay passed away on August 11, 2014, after a brief illness. Joan was all about family. The "Lake House" on Woods Road was the stage for family gatherings since 1956. Joan was a doer and lived life to the fullest, with zest, energy and always looked for the "best" in all she met. She will truly be missed by all whose lives she touched. Joan wouldn't want anyone to mourn her, but to celebrate life, everyday, as she did! For her obituary and more information, please see the funeral home website at:

Charter Communications

As everyone knows, Candlewood Knolls has a revenue sharing arrangement with Charter Communications whereas the Community earns 5% on the gross value of the revenue that Charter generates by selling a variety of cable services to CK residents. Obviously, the additional revenue we receive helps to subsidize our tax base, however, our penetration rate through June 21st is only at 43%. If any residents are interesting in switching to Charter, please contact

Joshua Pittello of Charter at (413) 388-2894.

Incentives for CK residents include:

- 1) Up to a $500 competitive buyout program
- 2) 30 day risk-free trial
- 3) No contract
- 4) Free installation
- 5) Wi-Fi service available
- 6) Free DVR service for one year (1 TV) or reduced DVR service for one year (2-4 TV's)
- 7) Unlimited calling throughout the USA, Canada, Puerto Rico, Guam and Virgin Island included with phone service
- 8) Five to ten times the internet speed compared to our local competitors in the area.

A Message from your Board of Directors

To All Community Members:

At the stockholder's meeting on Friday evening, July 11, 2014, we received a brief presentation from Meg Turner—Shelter Manager of the New Fairfield/Sherman Animal Shelter. Meg provided brochures (available at the CK office) and is available at anytime to help residents catch feral cats, including neutering, spaying and placing kittens for adoption. There is no cost to CK residents for these services, though donations to the animal shelter are accepted and encouraged.

Meg can be reached at 203-746-2925 or via website at www.nfsaw.org.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.~ CK Board of Directors
