Bocce Night / Dragon Boat Race

The Knolls Knights are officially registered for the 2014 Candlewood Lake Dragon Boat Races and are gearing up to compete on August 16th. A few rowers are still needed to join our returning crew that has taken Bronze for the past 2 years. Those interested should contact Lucas Scheer lscheer@lsglobaladvisory.com. In addition to being a fun event, the registration fee supports the Candlewood Lake Authority and its efforts to protect and keep our lake safe for future generations.

Please also mark your calendars for Bocce Night on Saturday, August 9th, which will be a fundraiser to help offset the registration fee for our rowers. Stay tuned for additional details.....

A Message from your Board of Directors

To All Community Members:

At the stockholder's meeting on Friday evening, July 11, 2014, we received a brief presentation from Meg Turner—Shelter Manager of the New Fairfield/Sherman Animal Shelter. Meg provided brochures (available at the CK office) and is available at anytime to help residents catch feral cats, including neutering, spaying and placing kittens for adoption. There is no cost to CK residents for these services, though donations to the animal shelter are accepted and encouraged.

Meg can be reached at 203-746-2925 or via website at www.nfsaw.org.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.
