Peggy's Picks

This week I picked the second best meal this season! It started with a glass of red wine on the enclosed patio at Spasi's on Mill Plain Road in Danbury. Once seated we were given a plate of tapenade and pureed white beans to mix and dip our warm bread with olive oil. We then ordered bruschetta, that was delicious! A gorgonzola salad came with our dinner. Our main entrees were a stuffed chicken with eggplant in a creamy red sauce with broccoli rabe, and hot sausage and peas served over rigatoni in again, a tasty cream sauce. We finished our meal with coffee, and a shared slice of key lime pie to cleanse our pallets. We also took home a doggie bag. As you all know I don't have a dog, but I enjoyed the leftovers the next day.

Call ahead or just go to Spasi's at 203-744-9115.
