Family Picnic Update

Last week we forgot to thank the following businesses who generously donated items for the raffle prizes at the Family Picnic: Video Island ($15 gift certificate), Heritage Discount Liquors (Wine Duo and set of 15 Liquor Tooters), New Fairfield Village Hardware (Gift certificate for propane tank refill).

This week we’d like to personally thank all of the families listed below who kindly donated raffle prizes to help make this picnic be a continued success: Jay and Karly Becker, The Dahl Family, John Dapolite, Mike Dapolite and Family, Louis and Donna DeSantis, Arne and Janice Eckelman, Michelle Weintraub, Jerry and Ellen Fitzgerald, Frank and Nancy Herbert, John and Nancy Hyland, Peter and Brigg Hyland, The Iavarone Family, The Kosakoff Family, Maryann Maloney, Bob and Louise Michal, Jeremy and Danah Moore, Linda Rilke Murer, The O’Callaghan Family, The Ostuni Family, Dave and Lynn Oswill, Dorothy Petrucelli, Nancy Petrucelli, The Reif Family, Tony and Mary Sarro, The Scheer Family, The Stroh Family, The Togneri Family.

Sailboat Race Results: On Sunday, July 25th, there was a total of 5 sailors who braved the weather and beat the rain in order to participate in this week’s event. First place went to the Eckelmanns, second place went to the Strohs and third place went to the Blaine/Heydt boat. Lets give Erin Stroh a round of applause for giving dad Rich such good sailing advice. Maybe if Rich let’s Erin man the sail next week, we’ll see a new winner!

Bocce Night: Thanks to our hosts, the Strohs and Keenans, we finally had our fist bocce night of the season. All those attending had a great meal and a fun time playing bocce. The winners of the night were Rich Stroh and Kevin Keenan.

Bocce Night July 30th: This event will be hosted by the Pagels and the Russells. Join us at 6:30 PM for dinner and Bocce. $6 for adults and $3 for kids for dinner. Bocce is free.

Ice Cream Night: Last week, despite the weather and the competition in town from the carnival, there was a good sized crowd at the Clubhouse enjoying an evening of terrific tasting ice cream. Come on down next week for a mid-week break!

What’s Happening In the Knolls

A Letter to the Community From the Schuenzel family

Hi, I'm Ernie and Chris Schuenzel's daughter, Linda Capen. My parents have had a very difficult few years and my dad is currently under hospice care at home. My mom fell the day after Father's Day and broke her hip. She is home from the hospital after receiving a partial hip replacement. Recently some of their friends have gotten in touch with me because they'd sent a card and the post office returned it to them because their forwarding order had expired. I receive all their mail and give them their personal mail. I was wondering if the Knolls Knews Notes would put their mailing address in the next issue so the mail anyone from the Knolls sends wouldn't be returned to them?

Their current MAILING address is:

Ernie and Chris Schuenzel

Ladies Night

There will be a blind wine tasting (don't worry, we're only blind-folding the bottles, not the attendees!) on Tuesday, August 10th at 8:00 PM. Please note that the cost of attending this event is $8.00. Attendees need to bring their own wine glass and an appetizer to share. Designated golf cart drivers are optional.

Children's Program Weekly Update

3 & 4's: Week Four. We had yet another successful week with the 3 & 4's. The campers added to their arts & crafts collection, decorating rubber duckies, and creating animal masks. In addition, they had a lot of fun playing "ring-around-the-rosie" and various other circle games. The boys advanced their soccer skills this week, successfully scoring multiple goals. The week finished strongly with Pizza Day on Friday. The rain didn't prevent us from enjoying the day, from watching "Over the Hedge" in the morning to being entertained by a magician and gobbling delicious cheesy pizza in the afternoon.

5 & 6's: As our summer weeks of camp go by, the memories made keep getting better and better. The 5 & 6's never cease to amaze their counselors.

From their generous acts of sharing snacks with campers who may have forgotten theirs, to their unending motivation and determination to learn and conquer a new game. One of the most admirable things about the 5 & 6's is the way they look forward to swim lessons everyday. They can't wait to dive into the water to learn a new stroke or see how many dunks they can do in a row. As we pass the mid-point of our summer, the 5 & 6's have gone from little minnows to big sharks and can't wait to see what the rest of the summer holds.

7 & 8's: In the grand game of Candlewood Knolls Camp, we have reached half time. As coaches examining the first half of a match to determine the next course of action, Catherine Morrison and Brendan Kavanagh have been reflecting on the 7 & 8's four weeks together to plan for the rest of the summer. We began a short while ago as a team bent on kickboards and circle games. This past week, the 7 & 8's proved their development in CKCP's first ever soccer cup. 7 & 8 year olds tore up the field on teams with the daunting 9 & 10's. Catherine and Brendan are so proud of their 7 & 8's for stepping up to the challenge and conquering their fears of playing with older kids.

We ended the week with Pizza Day and a Magic Show, where campers watched eagerly while a few were lucky enough to participate. Be sure to stick around for the second half; this exciting, fun filled game is not over yet.

9 & 10's: Counselors Taylor and Bissy were gleaming with an abundance of pride when campers continued to persevere through the stormy weather last week. The 9 & 10's fought the storm all week until they saw the rainbow. We ate pizza together and were amazed by the magician on CKCP's annual Pizza Day. We went to Blueberry Island via canoe, where we viewed the do's and don'ts of canoeing. Overall, we had a tremendous week, yet again, and every day we light a match in our hearts that brings us spirit to our everyday camp lives.

11 & 12's: Yearning for an eminent time the juniors dove into week five, like a swimmer lunging into the water at the start of a race. Our campers were all soccer champs in the first annual Candlewood Cup, just like Michael Phelps in the Beijing Olympics. After coasting a smooth lap the swimmer flipped around, and anticipated a successful win as the juniors did when they saw their Pizza Day slices. Our camp ended the week with a magician to commemorate half the summer.

13 & 14's: Last week was our candlewood Cup Week! It was great having a soccer tournament between the different teams of the 11 and up groups. The South Beach bears team took the gold, good job guys!! We ended the week with a Pizza Day and a visiting magician. His tricks were entertaining as we were stuck inside the clubhouse because of the rain. We are looking forward to this busy week ahead and especially our two swim meets!

Children's Program Food Drive: The Candlewood Knolls Children's Program is having a food drive during the week of July 26th. Please see the attached flyer for details.
